 2 (10.30 am)
 3 Pre Inquest Review
 4 THE CHIEF CORONER: Good morning, Mr Hough.
 5 MR HOUGH: Good morning, sir. As you know, this is the 6 third pre-inquest hearing in the inquests concerning the 7 deaths arising from the London Bridge and Borough Market
 8 terrorist attack of 3 June 2017.
 9 As at previous hearings, the purpose is firstly to 10 update interested persons and the wider public on the 11 preparations for the Inquest; secondly to allow 12 interested persons to express any views, and thirdly to 13 resolve a small number of procedural issues.
 14 The subjects to be addressed are set out in 15 an agenda and written submissions which were calculated 16 to interested persons last week, and which are available 17 to the press today. Those and any directions will be 18 posted on the Inquest's website.
 19 May I begin by introducing those appearing.
 20 I appear with Aaron Moss as counsel to the Inquest.
 21 Bircham Dyson Bell are solicitors to the Inquest, a team
 22 led by Sian Jones.
 23 Gareth Patterson QC, instructed by Hogan Lovells, 24 appears for the families of six of those who died:
 25 Christine Archibald, James McMullan, Alexandre Pigeard,

1

1 Kirsty Boden, Sébastien Bélanger and Sara Zelenak.
 2 Dominic Adamson, instructed by Slater and Gordon, is for 3 the family of Xavier Thomas. The family of Ignacio
 4 Echeverria are not represented but are in communication 5 with family liaison officers.
 6 For the former wife of Rachid Redouane is 7 Esmá Basbaydar of Imran Khan & Partners. The widow of 8 Khuram Butt is not represented in court today, I think, 9 but has had representation from GSG Law.
 10 Members of the family of Youssef Zaghba are not 11 represented, but there have been communications with 12 them about the Inquest.
 13 Richard Horwell QC and Matthew Butt appear for the 14 Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis.
 15 Fiona Barton QC appears for the Commissioner of the City
 16 of London Police.
 17 Hannah Walsh of Weightmans is for British Transport 18 Police. Samantha Leek QC appears for the Secretary of 19 State for the Home Department, and is representing 20 security agencies.
 21 Sarah Simcock appears for the London Ambulance 22 Service. Saba Naqshbandi is for the 23 London Fire Commissioner. Fiona Canby appears for 24 Transport for London. Briony Ballard is for the 25 Corporation of the City of London. The director general

2

1 of the Independent Office for Police Conduct is 2 represented by John Gayer.
 3 Howard Stevens QC, instructed by Kennedys, appears 4 for Hertz UK Limited and Probus Insurance.
 5 I hope I have not omitted anyone.
 6 So I propose that, as before, you hear from me on 7 all subjects on the agenda, and then address each agenda 8 item individually with interested persons present, if 9 that's convenient.
 10 THE CHIEF CORONER: Certainly, thank you.
 11 MR HOUGH: The first item is applications for designation as 12 interested persons.
 13 As you know, sir, it's not uncommon for applications 14 to be made throughout the preparations for an Inquest by 15 people and organisations seeking interested person 16 status. You have dealt with a number of such 17 applications in the past and there are two more to 18 address today. Both are made under section 47(2)(m) of 19 the Coroners and Justice Act 2009, which gives you 20 a discretion to designate those with a sufficient 21 interest in the Inquest. We have outlined the legal 22 principles in earlier submissions.
 23 The first application is by British Transport Police 24 on the grounds, first of all, that its officers were 25 heavily involved in the response to the attack

3

1 generally. Secondly, that two specific officers
 2 directly encountered the attackers. Thirdly, that other 3 specific officers were involved in the aftermath and 4 emergency care.
 5 The second application is by the City of London 6 Corporation. It has responsibility for the structure of 7 London Bridge. Its interest arises because the Inquests 8 will be looking at physical security measures on the 9 bridge.
 10 We support both applications, for reasons we've 11 given in our written submissions. Nobody has objected 12 to either of them, and in those circumstances we would 13 invite you to make the relevant orders.
 14 THE CHIEF CORONER: Yes. And departing from your suggestion 15 for one moment, Mr Hough, it may be if I deal with that 16 first of all, just to see whether anyone wishes to say 17 anything in relation to either application.
 18 No. Thank you.
 19 Mr Hough, it seems to me those are well founded
 20 applications and I grant them.
 21 MR HOUGH: Thank you, sir.
 22 The second item is the update on the police
 23 investigation. As you know, sir, the investigative work 24 of Operation Datalov of SO15 has continued since the 25 last hearing and continued apace. We give a full update

4

1 at paragraph 8 of our submissions, but let me outline a
2 few key points.

3 The police team have by now taken over 2,700 witness
4 statements and have supplied them to the Inquest team.
5 They've continued their work reviewing and analysing 6 a vast amount of CCTV footage from the scene of the 7 attack, from points on the attackers' route, and showing 8 the attackers' movements before the attack. As I'll 9 explain in a moment, they've produced a number of 10 compilations of the key footage to be used in the 11 Inquests.

12 They've also reviewed a large amount of police 13 body-worn video footage and footage from other sources, 14 including videos taken by members of the public.
15 They've incorporated useful material into the 16 compilations.

17 Work by forensic scientists has continued, including 18 examination of the van used in the attack, the 19 attackers' weapons and petrol bombs found in the van.
20 Since the last hearing, work has been done to establish 21 whether the van actually physically came into contact 22 with Xavier Thomas.

23 A number of smartphones and laptops were found which 24 had some link to the attackers, and a huge amount of 25 work has been done to investigate their communications,

5

1 internet searches, and so on.

2 As I said at the last hearing, the police have also 3 been involved in the instruction of a series of experts, 4 most of whom will be called to give evidence in the 5 Inquest.

6 The police Computer Aided Modelling Bureau has 7 produced a 3D model of the attack scene based on laser 8 scanning of the area which will be used, as in the 9 Westminster Bridge Inquest, to provide a variety of 10 visual aids.

11 The police have also produced a number of 12 investigation reports with some input from your team on 13 their content. These, we suggest, should be the first 14 port of call for interested persons seeking to 15 understand the evidence in overview.

16 There are reports on each of those who died, 17 covering the circumstances of death and emergency care.
18 First versions of those were disclosed through the 19 document management system Opus to interested persons 20 in June. Updated versions were disclosed last month.

21 For each attacker there is a report of around 22 120 pages, which provides an overview of the attack with 23 plans, stills from relevant footage and summaries of 24 eyewitness evidence. They were disclosed last month.

25 There is also a separate report on the attackers'

6

1 preparations for the attack and a report on the hiring
2 of the van, each of which has recently been disclosed.
3 There are reports on the analysis of electronic devices,
4 which will be disclosed over coming weeks.

5 In addition, the Datalive team are helpfully
6 producing further reports at our request: an overview 7 report summarising the events of the attack, a report on 8 the master video compilation, and a biographical report 9 on the life and background of each attacker.

10 They are also in the process of supplying your team 11 with documents from their investigation, such as 12 investigation logs, interview transcripts and so on.

13 So that's a brief summary of the work of the Datalive 14 team.

15 THE CHIEF CORONER: Just pausing there, Mr Hough, perhaps 16 I should thank them very much indeed for all the 17 assistance they're giving to the Inquests team.

18 MR HOUGH: Yes, they are at one and the same time performing 19 a major investigation and acting as coroner's officers, 20 supporting you in your task.

21 THE CHIEF CORONER: Yes.

22 MR HOUGH: The third agenda item is inquiries by the Inquest
23 team.

24 In parallel with the continuing work of the police, 25 your team has been making inquiries of various

7

1 organisations as set out in paragraph 12 of the 2 submissions. Let me summarise them and add some 3 observations in relation to the submissions of others.

4 London Ambulance Service has provided substantial
5 documentation, such as patient forms and CAD logs. It 6 is also producing four overview statements, as helpfully 7 set out at paragraph 7 of Ms Simcock's submissions for 8 this hearing. Those will cover various aspects of the 9 operational response and the emergency care of those who 10 died. The London Fire Commissioner has provided 11 documents relating to fire officers' activity on the 12 night of the attack.

13 The Metropolitan Police Service has been asked to 14 provide evidence explaining its operational response to 15 the attack, and also evidence covering the training of 16 armed officers who confronted the attackers. We note 17 the point made in the submissions of the Metropolitan 18 Police Service that care may need to be taken with 19 firearms training evidence not to reveal sensitive 20 tactics, and we're very alive to that.

21 The City of London Police has also been asked to 22 provide relevant evidence, and that will include 23 a statement covering matters relating to 24 Project Servator, an initiative involving unpredictable
25 and visible police deployment, which is used to deter

8

1 and disrupt criminal activity , including terrorist acts.
2 We've recently received a draft of that statement and 3 an exhibit , and we hope to disclose that material soon.

4 We note from Mr Patterson's submissions that the 5 families are also keen to understand what patrol units
6 were deployed by the City of London Police and the MPS 7 in the area of the attacks , whether generally or in 8 connection with Project Servator. We'll ask that that 9 topic is covered in the operational statements of the 10 forces .

11 The Independent Office of Police Conduct produced 12 a report on the fatal shooting of the attackers , which 13 was disclosed several months ago. It has also provided 14 its investigation documents and a short video 15 compilation of the actual confrontation.

16 Hertz. We've received and disclosed two statements 17 from Hertz employees about the hiring of the van. We've 18 also made further inquiries about security checks which 19 would be made in June 2017 and which would be made now, 20 before vehicles of this kind are hired out. In that 21 connection, we take Mr Patterson's point that it may be 22 helpful to have a statement from an appropriate 23 government department on the subject, and with that in 24 mind we'll make inquiries with the Department for 25 Transport in the first instance.

1 Transport for London. As Ms Canby acknowledges in 2 her submissions, there's ongoing work for Transport for 3 London to provide documents relevant to physical 4 security measures on London Bridge and about any 5 intelligence on threats to the area. Similar inquiries
6 will be made of the City of London Corporation.

7 Again, we understand that the families have concerns
8 about the lack of barriers on London Bridge, this attack
9 coming some months after the Westminster Bridge attack.
10 We can assure them that this is a topic we are actively 11 pursuing. We will be seeking statements from police and 12 from national agencies, as well as from the local 13 authorities , on that subject.

14 British Transport Police has been asked for relevant 15 documents and, again, to prepare a statement of its 16 operational activities on the night of the attack.

17 Finally , we're pursuing inquiries with a number of 18 agencies about practices for recovery of bodies from the 19 Thames. We also agree with Mr Adamson's submission that 20 a statement should be produced to explain the efforts to 21 search for Xavier Thomas, including when and why those 22 efforts were discontinued.

23 So the fourth agenda item is audio-visual materials.
24 The following audio-visual materials are to be used in 25 the Inquest.

1 First of all , as I've said, there is a master
2 compilation of footage covering the attackers ' 3 preparations, their movements on the day, their route to 4 the scene, the van being driven across the bridge and 5 into pedestrians, the continued attack on foot with the 6 multiple savage assaults , both fatal and non-fatal , and 7 the final confrontation with the armed officers .

8 On the compilation there are markings to indicate 9 relevant individuals and vehicles so that it can be more 10 readily understood. This is a long compilation which 11 comes in a number of parts and runs for around four 12 hours. The first two-thirds of it have been disclosed 13 via the Opus system this week and the balance will be 14 uploaded very shortly. There are also individual 15 compilations of footage for each of those who died, 16 showing their movements before the attack, the fatal
17 events and the aftercare .

18 We are grateful for confirmation from Mr Patterson 19 and Mr Adamson that those can be disclosed without 20 waiting for them to be viewed by all the families , which 21 would take a little time. That will be arranged as soon 22 as possible.

23 There will also be animations based upon the 24 Computer Aided Modelling Bureaus 3D model of the scene, 25 and there will be packages of stills from the key pieces

1 of CCTV footage, because those can be very useful in 2 examining witnesses.

3 The fifth item on the agenda is disclosure to 4 interested persons.

5 As I've already indicated , a large amount of 6 material has been disclosed by uploading to the Opus 7 system, which is accessible to interested persons, and 8 which I hope it will be agreed is a very user-friendly 9 platform. That includes investigation reports, 10 pathology reports, already hundreds of witness 11 statements disclosed , and some expert reports. The 12 video material I have mentioned has also been disclosed 13 via that system, as has more material.

14 Regular updating emails are sent to interested 15 persons to identify the material that's being uploaded 16 to Opus. The disclosure work, as you know, sir, takes 17 a large amount of time and effort , as material has to be 18 reviewed for relevance and redactions have to be applied 19 for irrelevant personal information and the like . More 20 material will be disclosed over the coming weeks, as set 21 out in paragraph 15 of our submissions. Disclosure is 22 being rigorously prioritised so that the most 23 evidentially valuable material is disclosed first .

24 By the end of this month, we shall have disclosed 25 all of the statements referenced in the attacker and

1 victim reports, giving interested persons access to the 2 main eyewitness statements three months before the 3 Inquests start.

4 So the sixth item is selection and timetabling of 5 witnesses.

6 Although the decision on which witnesses to call is 7 ultimately for you as coroner, we will be consulting 8 fully with the families and all other interested persons 9 on the subject.

10 In our submissions at paragraphs 18 and 19, we've 11 set out the types of evidence to be given at the two 12 consecutive hearings: first that concerning the victims, 13 then that concerning the attackers. Based on the 14 submissions of others, we don't discern any disagreement 15 with the approach we've set out there.

16 In the next couple of weeks we'll circulate a first 17 draft witness list for comment by interested persons.
18 We will be looking to produce a reasonably clear 19 timetable by around the end of February, allowing 20 witnesses to be warned two months before the hearing.

21 Sir, the seventh item is expert evidence: an item 22 we've included simply to give the opportunity for any 23 interested person to identify further expert evidence 24 that they say may be needed. We're not aware of any 25 proposal of that kind, but no doubt we'll hear if

13

1 anybody has anything to suggest.

2 The eighth item is security sensitive material and 3 evidence from the Security Service. This requires 4 a little more elaboration.

5 As I said at the last hearing, the public report of 6 Lord Anderson QC on MI5 and police reviews of the 2017 7 terror attacks makes clear that Khuram Butt was the 8 subject of a priority investigation by MI5 at the time
9 of the attack. It also gives some further information 10 about MI5's intelligence on the attackers.

11 One of the subjects to be covered at the Inquest is 12 what was known to the authorities about the attackers
13 before 3 June 2017. Since the last hearing, 14 security-cleared members of your team have been given 15 access to the classified post-attack reviews of MI5 and 16 the police, and to all the documents underlying those 17 reports. We've also held a number of constructive 18 meetings with MI5, in which we've identified first of 19 all information which doesn't appear in the Anderson 20 Report, which we regard as potentially relevant to the 21 Inquest, and, secondly, a set of the underlying 22 documents which, similarly, we regard as relevant.

23 The challenge is to find a means to adduce as much 24 relevant material as possible and enable a full and 25 thorough inquiry, but without divulging information

14

1 which would weaken efforts to combat terrorism in 2 future. The way we propose to do that is as follows.

3 The Security Service have considered our points and 4 are current working on a witness statement of a senior 5 officer. This will provide background evidence, it will 6 attest to the contents of the Anderson Report, or the 7 relevant contents, and will provide further material
8 which the Service accepts can be disclosed. A draft 9 will be ready for our review at the start of next month,
10 and a final version of that statement will be disclosed
11 to interested persons as soon as possible thereafter.

12 The Service will also indicate what, if any, further 13 material it would agree to have disclosed in the 14 Inquests, and explain any objections to disclosure 15 beyond that. After that, a decision will be taken on 16 whether the Service should be required to make a public 17 interest immunity application which will then be 18 considered at a further hearing.

19 Come what may, we understand that the senior officer 20 of the Service will be giving evidence at the Inquest, 21 as happened at the Westminster Bridge Inquest. Both 22 Mr Patterson and Mr Adamson make the point in their 23 submissions that they're keen to see underlying 24 documents which evidence the MI5 investigations into 25 Khuram Butt, to the extent that's possible.

15

1 We understand that submission, as an advocate will 2 often prefer to test evidence by reference to actual 3 contemporaneous documents. However, I hope everyone
4 will understand that we can't give commitments today
5 about the form in which evidence will be disclosed.
6 What I can promise is that we will follow the process 7 we've indicated, that we have taken a rigorous and 8 challenging approach in our dealings with the Service, 9 and that we'll continue to do so.

10 THE CHIEF CORONER: Can I just, again, it may be appropriate 11 for me to simply just acknowledge, Ms Leek, the work 12 that's been done between those who you represent and my 13 team. Thank you very much.

14 MS LEEK: Thank you, sir. I'm grateful.

15 MR HOUGH: The ninth item is anonymity and special measures 16 applications.

17 Since the last hearing you issued a detailed ruling
18 which addressed a number of applications for anonymity 19 and special measures. That ruling is available on the 20 website and is summarised at paragraph 27 of our 21 submissions.

22 There was a further application which was deferred 23 and which we discuss at paragraphs 28 and 29. It was by 24 a male relation of Khuram Butt. Although the 25 applicant's solicitors indicated on 16 November 2018

16

1 that that application for anonymity was not being 2 pressed, you nevertheless prudently gave more time for 3 it to be supported by evidence in your ruling of 4 19 November, and you did so for reasons we don't need to 5 go into in detail today.

6 In our written submissions we explain why we say the 7 anonymity application should now be refused formally but 8 we add that special measures should be granted if this 9 individual is called as a witness. We give our reasons 10 in the document. Given the position taken by the 11 applicant's solicitors in November, we submit that you
12 can and should address the matter by giving a direction 13 today, referring to our submissions as necessary for 14 your reasons, sir.

15 Also, and separately, we understand that 16 an application for anonymity and special measures will 17 be made on behalf of the Security Service witness.
18 We anticipate that that can be dealt with in writing 19 after this hearing. It may well raise the same set of 20 arguments and issues which you addressed in the 21 Westminster Bridge case where the equivalent application 22 was not controversial.

23 We also understand that there may be another such 24 application by the Metropolitan Police Service on behalf 25 of a police officer who will be giving evidence. Again,

17

1 it may be possible to deal with that in writing. But 2 what we would ask today is that any media organisation 3 which would be interested in considering and addressing 4 such applications should inform the solicitors to the 5 Inquests of their contact details so that they can be 6 properly involved in any such applications and their 7 review.

8 Sir, finally, the tenth item is the start date and 9 the practicalities of the Inquest hearings. The Inquest 10 hearing for the victims will, it is planned, begin on 11 7 May 2019 and will run for several weeks, immediately
12 followed by the hearing of the attackers' Inquests, 13 which will have a jury and which we expect to be 14 shorter. We anticipate the two hearings together
15 lasting a total of around two months. Both hearings
16 will take place here in Court Number 1 of the Old 17 Bailey, and court sitting hours will be from 10.00 am to 18 about 4.30 pm each day. Transcripts of the hearing will 19 be posted to the website each day.

20 Your team are in communication with the families' 21 representatives about arranging video links, where 22 possible, to their home countries. We will do 23 everything in our power to make the hearings as 24 accessible to the families as possible. As you know,
25 sir, the links we set up during the Westminster Bridge

18

1 case worked well.

2 So, in conclusion, I hope that summary has been 3 helpful for you, sir, for interested persons, and for 4 the public here. Unless you wish to raise any matters 5 at this stage, I'll address any further submissions by 6 way of reply.

7 THE CHIEF CORONER: Thank you very much, Mr Hough.

8 I'm going to suggest we start right at the end with 9 the start date and the practicalities.

10 Initially, we had hoped that the hearings would 11 start at the end of April, but I think, for various 12 reasons, 7 May seems to me to be the sensible date to 13 make a substantive start.

14 Can I ask if anyone wants to say anything about the 15 start date and the arrangements that Mr Hough has set 16 out in relation to the practicalities of video links, 17 where we can arrange them?

18 Very good. Well, I will then say that the Inquests 19 will start on Tuesday, 7 May in this courtroom, and the 20 arrangements that are set out in the submissions from 21 counsel to the Inquests.

22 Can I then go back to item 2 on the agenda, which 23 was the update, Mr Hough, which you have given about the 24 Operation Dativall investigation so far.

25 Mr Patterson, if I can address you first of all,

19

1 because I know you touch on this in your written
2 submissions.

3 MR PATTERSON: Yes.

4 THE CHIEF CORONER: Can I simply make clear to you and to 5 everyone else in court that I've read the written 6 submissions that have been sent in. I'm not inviting 7 people to elaborate on them, unless they wish to. It's 8 really an opportunity to stress anything in addition to 9 that which is in your written document that you wish to 10 mention.

11 MR PATTERSON: Nothing in addition. But could I simply say 12 that I'm grateful for what I've heard this morning from 13 Mr Hough in relation to those distinct areas of inquiry 14 which will be looked into. Protective security is of 15 real significance, particularly in relation to 16 Christine Archibald, who was hit on the pavement as she 17 crossed the bridge. I'm grateful that relevant and 18 appropriate witnesses with appropriate responsibility 19 will be, hopefully, called.

20 Equally, the vehicle rental issue and consideration 21 of a witness from the Department for Transport. The 22 issues that arose in Westminster seem to have resulted 23 in absolutely nothing by way of additional regulation or 24 efforts to prevent rentals by those planning terrorist 25 attacks.

20

1 Perhaps while I'm on my feet, sir, may I simply say
2 that in relation to the Security Service issue, again, 3 we're grateful that there are efforts to ensure that the 4 relevant evidence will be available. It makes a world 5 of difference having the actual evidence when examining 6 a witness and exploring this very significant issue, and 7 so we're grateful for the efforts on both parts to have 8 a workable solution to this.

9 THE CHIEF CORONER: Thank you. Mr Patterson, whilst I've 10 got you on your feet, in relation to the other items on 11 the agenda, again, your very helpful written submissions 12 makes clear that you have noted effectively what is 13 happening with things such as the video compilations 14 with the other material.

15 MR PATTERSON: Yes.

16 THE CHIEF CORONER: And I don't think you have anything 17 further to say at this stage in relation to any of that.

18 MR PATTERSON: We are very grateful for the help of your 19 team and we will liaise, as in the last Inquest, to 20 ensure that everything runs smoothly. It ran very well 21 on the last occasion with the link to Romania, and we 22 will ensure that hopefully everything runs in a seamless 23 fashion.

24 THE CHIEF CORONER: Thank you. The one matter that, as you
25 know, I am very interested in is the pen portrait

21

1 material.

2 MR PATTERSON: Yes.

3 THE CHIEF CORONER: And, again, I would welcome that being 4 put in whichever form suits the families that you 5 represent, and being presented, as it was in the 6 Westminster Bridge Inquest, at the beginning. It was 7 an extremely important part of that, and it will be 8 an extremely important part of this Inquest, for me to 9 hear something of these people in life.

10 MR PATTERSON: We were very grateful for the opportunity on 11 the last occasion. We are grateful that on this 12 occasion you are similarly taking this evidence. It was 13 very helpful for the families. I'm sure it will be 14 again, whether it is a family member speaking in person 15 or whether they ask for something to be read on their 16 behalf. But it does help everyone to focus on the 17 individual lives that we are dealing with, when we then 18 turn to the relevant issues.

19 THE CHIEF CORONER: On the last occasion we had material 20 given in a number of different formats, including quite 21 a moving video from the family from Bucharest, where it 22 was presented here in a way that they weren't able to be 23 here to see, but at least they knew that the material 24 was being presented in a way that I could listen and see 25 here.

22

1 MR PATTERSON: And it ensures that the families are at the 2 heart of the process, which I know is what you did 3 ensure throughout the last Inquest.

4 THE CHIEF CORONER: Yes. Thank you, Mr Patterson.

5 Mr Adamson, coming to you next, if I may, simply 6 because, again, some of the similar points that I've 7 just mentioned to Mr Patterson apply equally to you, and 8 I've read your written submissions. Very helpful they 9 are indeed. I don't know whether you have anything 10 further to add to them?

11 MR ADAMSON: I've got nothing to add. I have heard what my 12 learned friend Mr Patterson has just said. I endorse 13 everything he has just said, and unless there is 14 anything that you require me to address you on, I have 15 nothing to say.

16 THE CHIEF CORONER: No. Thank you.

17 Can I then just inquire of anyone else, in relation 18 to -- at the moment I've been looking -- I started, 19 I know, with item 2 with Mr Patterson. To some extent, 20 we've trespassed outside number 2 to look at other 21 inquiries and other matters. Can I simply ask if anyone 22 wishes to make any further oral submissions to the 23 points on any of the agenda items?

24 So far as the anonymity and special measures
25 applications are concerned, Mr Horwell, I think there

23

1 may be, in due course, an application.

2 MR HORWELL: Very likely to be.

3 THE CHIEF CORONER: And obviously that material submitted in 4 written form we can deal with as and when.

5 MR HORWELL: Sir, yes.

6 THE CHIEF CORONER: Thank you very much.

7 So far as ABi is concerned, Mr Hough, I don't know 8 that anyone is here physically in court to represent?

9 MR HOUGH: No. As I indicated, the solicitors indicated 10 that they were not pressing the application.

11 THE CHIEF CORONER: No.

12 MR HOUGH: However, because the application made reference 13 to personal health issues --

14 THE CHIEF CORONER: Yes.

15 MR HOUGH: -- you went ahead to give more time in case the 16 applicant wished to renew it, or to provide any 17 supporting material.

18 THE CHIEF CORONER: Of which we have had none.

19 MR HOUGH: And he has not done so. Nevertheless, we have 20 looked at the application on its merits on the basis of 21 the evidence that we have, and for the reasons set out 22 in our written submissions, we would invite you to 23 refuse the application for anonymity formally, but to 24 indicate that if this gentleman is called as a witness, 25 special measures in the form we've indicated will be

24

1 granted.
 2 THE CHIEF CORONER: Yes. I make those directions, Mr Hough,
 3 in relation to ABI.
 4 So far as other matters on the agenda are concerned, 5 it seems to me that the only other matter I was simply 6 going to mention directly was that of expert evidence.
 7 Simply that I'm conscious that if there is such material 8 that is sought, the sooner we know about it the better.
 9 The written submissions I have seen, no one seems to be 10 flagging it up, but as I have everyone here, it seemed 11 to be an appropriate question to ask of everyone present 12 whether there are any other expert materials sought?
 13 MR HOUGH: An echoing silence.
 14 Sir, the reason we include this item, and we've 15 included it in the past, is that it is very difficult to 16 arrange expert evidence at short notice and have the 17 expert properly instructed with everyone's interests
 18 taken into account.
 19 It can always happen that the need for a particular 20 form of expert evidence arises late on, but we're trying 21 to minimise the chance of that, because of its potential 22 for disrupting proceedings.
 23 THE CHIEF CORONER: Thank you.
 24 Does anyone wish to raise any other matter in 25 relation to either the items on the agenda or anything

1 else this morning?
 2 Very good.
 3 Mr Patterson and Mr Adamson, the one thing I failed 4 to mention earlier on is that the facilities which were 5 made available for the last hearing will be made
 6 available for this hearing, so there will be a room
 7 available for family members if they wish to attend all 8 or any parts of the Inquest hearings.
 9 MR PATTERSON: Yes.
 10 THE CHIEF CORONER: A room very close to this courtroom is 11 dedicated for their use. The Corporation of London have 12 kindly redecorated those rooms, principally for these 13 interests, but in fact they will be used in other 14 situations too, and I'm extremely grateful to them for 15 doing that.
 16 MR PATTERSON: Yes.
 17 THE CHIEF CORONER: Clearly, any other matter which we can 18 appropriately deal with to make what will be a very 19 difficult time for the family members easier we will do 20 so.
 21 MR PATTERSON: It worked well last time and we are grateful 22 that that facility will be available again this time.
 23 THE CHIEF CORONER: Thank you very much.
 24 Mr Hough, if there's nothing further that needs to 25 be raised this morning, we will meet again then on

1 Tuesday, 7 May for the commencement of the Inquest 2 hearings.
 3 As you've indicated, the timescale is likely to be 4 that the Inquests together run for the best part of two 5 months. I know there are a couple of dates that I've 6 given to the Inquest team when I will not be available.
 7 I'm happy that those dates are circulated with others,
 8 because I'm conscious that people may have other 9 commitments which they wish to arrange around those 10 dates. They are likely to be dates when we won't be 11 able to sit at all, because I will not be in London.
 12 But, as I say, I'm happy that everyone is told those 13 dates.
 14 MR HOUGH: Yes, sir. And obviously between now and 7 May, 15 there will be a huge amount of work going on and 16 interested persons will be regularly updated.
 17 THE CHIEF CORONER: Absolutely. It was very clear to me in 18 the course of the Westminster Bridge Inquest that a vast 19 amount of work was done outside this courtroom by all of 20 those who were present, assisting me in my task. And as 21 I expressed at the end. I was extremely grateful that 22 work had been done, and presented the Inquest before me 23 in a very clear way. This has a wealth of material.
 24 I've looked at a very small proportion of it myself, but 25 I'm conscious of the work that's required to be done not

1 only by you and other members of the Inquest team, but 2 all of those present in court. And I know that the time 3 between now and May -- it sounds a long time -- but 4 I equally know that actually that time will be taken up
 5 in very valuable preparation for these Inquest hearings.
 6 Very well. We will meet again, then, on 7 May.
 7 I'll rise.
